

Accepted on-stage and poster presentations (as of September 1, 2025)

The papers are presented in alphabetical order by the last names of the first authors.

On-stage presentations

Anastasia Bauer, Anna Kuder, Marc Schulder, and Job Schepens	Pragmatic influences on the form of head nods: Insights from a study of spoken and signed interactions
Kristjana Debono and Benjamin Matthews	Signing with your hands full
Neil Fox, Marta Morgado, and Adam Schembri	Changing deaf spaces, changing sign languages? Generational differences in deaf signers in England and Portugal
Tommi Jantunen, Anna Puupponen, Sébastien Vandénitte, Doris Hernández and Jarkko Keränen	Testing the validity of the telling-showing continuum from kinematic and neurocognitive perspectives
Laura Kanto and Anna Puupponen	The diverse phenomenon of constructed action in children's language development
Luigi Leroze	At the Crossroads: A Sociolinguistic Perspective on Aspect Markers in Triestine Sign Language
Jadwiga Linde-Usiekniewicz, Marcin Łuczywek, Marek Śmietana, Renata Świderska-Noworyta, Małgorzata Talipska, Sylwia Łozińska, Joanna Wójcicka, Piotr Mostowski and Paweł Rutkowski	New Dictionaries of Polish Sign Language Legal and Medical Terminology
Nicky Macias	Beyond the Binary: Stance-Taking and Language Change in Trans-Affirming ASL
Marta Morgado	The impact of International Sign on the daily life of the Portuguese deaf community
Felicitas Otte, Anne Wienholz and Annika Herrmann	Referential expressions and their antecedents in two text types – A corpus study on German Sign Language
Adam Schembri	Moving beyond the 'gesture'/'sign' binary

Adam Schembri and Kearsy Cormier	Understanding directionality in British Sign Language verbs: Pointing away from the agreement debate
Weronika Szymańska-Gątarek	Fingerspelling Practices Through the Lens of Crip Linguistics and Non-alphabetic writing
Sébastien Vandenitte	(Re)drawing parallels between ideophones, observer view-point gestures, and depicting signs: insights gained from similarities across depictive practices
Erin Wilkinson, Lynn Hou and Ryan Lepic	A dynamic network of WHAT constructions in ASL: A usage-based constructionist approach

Poster presentations

Sirlara Alves	Exploring the Role of Pointing in Brazilian and Polish Sign Languages
Bartosz Bardian, Agata Jurkiewicz, and Izabela Marczak	Is the frequency of mouth actions age dependent? A corpus-based study of Polish Sign Language
Caroline Bogliotti, Romane Kasprzak, and Karin Heidlmayr	Working memory ability in sign and spoken language: impact of language modality and language proficiency
Louise Bony, Sandrine Burgat, and Marie-Anne Sallandre	Expression of motion events in Deaf children with late acquisition of French Sign Language (LSF)
Carl Börstell	Interactional sequences from signing patterns in the Swedish Sign Language Corpus
Caro Brosens and Margot Janssens	Gebarometer: how to measure the spread and use of signs?
Caro Brosens	Does that make sense? How to best collect example sentences for a sign language dictionary
Rafał Darasz	Syntactic properties of classifier predicates in Polish Sign Language (PJM) – research challenges and initial results
Lorena Figueiredo and Vadim Kimmelman	Negative nonmanual markers in Brazilian Sign Language
Adrianna Glegoła-Kwaśnik, Sylwia Łozińska, Piotr Mostowski, and Paweł Rutkowski	Who Signs More? A Corpus-Based Analysis of Narrative Length in Polish Sign Language
Adrianna Glegoła-Kwaśnik	A cognitive study on medical text comprehension in the Deaf: the role of Polish Sign Language translations, Text Simplification, and Easy-to-Read Texts
Ethan Hartzell	Syntactic Variation in Egyptian Sign Language Frog Stories

Andrea Lackner	Conceptualizing TIME in Austrian Sign Language
Cornelia Loos	Limitations on the encoding of temporally simultaneous events: Evidence from Uruguayan and German Sign Language (LSU &amp; DGS)
Marcin Łuczywek	Autonomous Non-Manual Elements in Polish Sign Language: Corpus-Based Research (Preliminary Study)
Bahtiyar Makaroğlu	The multimodal grammaticalization of aspectual markers in Turkish Sign Language (TİD)
Sanna Nordlund	Modification of directional verbs in textbooks and language use: From intuitions to corpus-based knowledge
Margaret Odhiambo and Hope Morgan	The semantics of colour signs in Kenyan Sign Language: Origins, universal patterns, and cultural associations
Lenka Okrouhlíková	The Emergence and Evolution of Czech Sign Language: A Diachronic Perspective
Marloes Oomen, Katie Mudd and Tobias de Ronde	Do signers interpret R-loci as regions or points? An on-line probe recognition task
Philomène Perin, Laurence Conty and Caroline Bogliotti	Lexical access in French Sign Language (LSF): how familiarity, concreteness and iconicity influence lexical processing of a sign
Heidi Proctor and Kearsy Cormier	The Order of Elements within the Noun Phrase in British Sign Language (BSL)
Laetitia Puissant-Schontz, Romane Kasprzak, Hatice Aksent and Caroline Bogliotti	SignToKids, linguistic and clinical issues
Adam Schembri, Neil Fox, Hannah Lutzenberger, Katie Mudd, Heidi Proctor, Josefina Safar, Matt Brown and Kenny Smith	Seeing the signs of morphology: iconicity and learnability in BSL grammar
Satu Siltaloppi	Question constructions in Finland-Swedish Sign Language (FSTS)
Margaux Susman and Vadim Kimmelman	Duration, velocity and amplitude of blinks in French Sign Language: a statistical analysis
Joanna Wójcicka and Anna Kuder	Predicational nonverbal clause constructions in the PJM Corpus
Migam.org	Migam.ai - AI Avatar for automating sign language translation